
Two-Year Graduate Diversity Fellowship
Department of the History of Art & Architecture

The MA Program in the History of Art and Architecture at the University of Massachusetts Amherst offers a two-year Graduate Diversity Fellowship to support students from historically underrepresented groups in the history of art and architecture. The purpose of the fellowship is to support M.A. candidates who seeks to pursue an academic or professional career in art history, but faces significant historical or economic barriers to further graduate study.

The fellowship comes with a very comprehensive and fully-funded financial package covering the entirety of the fellow's two years in the program. This appointment provides full tuition fee coverage, a 20-hour/week position as a teaching assistant with an annual stipend of at least $23,050, and a summer living allowance of $5000. The fellowship will also cover all the enrollment fees and health insurance costs. The fellow will be eligible for professional development funds to help support an internship, coursework, travel, or a research project during the summer. The department will provide the fellow with mentoring as well as academic and professional support throughout their time in the program.

Applicants who wish to be considered for a Graduate Diversity Fellowship should indicate this in their personal statement, and provide a brief reasoning. The deadline for F21 applications is on January 15, 2022. For more information and link to the application page, please visit:
